

ARCHIVES RESOURCE GUIDE

INTERIOR DESIGN

Archive Sources for Interior Design

There are a number of ways to look for archives relating to your topic of research. A good starting point is to think about the people, organisations or places you are interested in and then start to look for archives related to them.

To find out about our holdings related to interior design, use the “Interior design” subject index term on GSA’s Archives and Collections online catalogue:

<http://www.gsaarchives.net/archon/index.php?p=core/search&subjectid=17>

Some other useful resources are:

UCL Institute of Making <http://www.instituteofmaking.org.uk/materials-library>

Sanderson <http://www.sanderson-uk.com/history-timeline.aspx>

V&A Design Archives <http://www.vam.ac.uk/page/a/archive-of-art-and-design/>

V & A Textiles Collection <http://www.vam.ac.uk/page/t/textiles/>

Timorous Beasties <http://www.timorousbeasties.com/>

William Morris Gallery <http://www.wmgallery.org.uk/collection>

Heal’s <http://www.heals.co.uk/heals-heritage/heals-heritage/page/healsheritage>

The High Wycombe Electronic Furniture Archive

<http://hwfurniturearchive.bucks.ac.uk/asset-bank/action/viewHome>

Ercol <http://www.ercol.com/archive>

The Rhode Island Furniture Archive at the Yale University Art Gallery

<http://rifa.art.yale.edu/>

Museum of Domestic Design & Architecture (MoDA)

<http://www.moda.mdx.ac.uk/home>